

O'Brien County Conservation Board
August 17, 2021

The O'Brien County Conservation Board met in special session after the Bison burger picnic at 8:30 pm. In attendance were Tom Konz, Greg Burmakow, and Kathy Luedke.

Visitors in attendance were Lynn burmakow, Mary Hicks, Molly Hicks, Patty Vollink, Ruth Konz, Dave Stoll

A call was placed to Travis Scott, Director to discuss how the zoom meeting would take place, scheduled for 8/19/21.

Scott was asked whether Molly Hicks should be allowed to continue her position, answering the phones in The Prairie Heritage Center during normal business hours, while The Center is closed for COVID precautions. It was agreed that she would be able to continue as usual.

During the phone call, the Bison Burger picnic turnout was also discussed. 358 people were served outside of The Prairie Heritage Center.
